A MOTHER'S STORY

I am Nanda Nawarathna, and the mother of a 20-year-old profoundly handicapped daughter, called Sudu. I would like to share with you, all of MENCAFEP's friends around the world, my short life story.

My daughter is severely brain damaged, she cannot walk, talk, feed herself, go to the toilet and her eyesight is very poor. But she has a beautiful smile and when content with life giggles and giggles to herself. When not content with life, she can scream the house down - she has a very good pair of lungs!
